Payment Policy

The total cost for the entire party, that includes an automatic 20% gratuity charge, is estimated to be $_____.

It is understood that costs may increase or decrease based on changes that are requested after the contract is signed. All guests will be charged under one credit card. A credit card must be put on file in order to reserve the event.

For BloGo Salon + Medspa Events this card will be charged the $_____ nonrefundable private party fee (at $15 per guest) upon receipt of this signed contract. The private party fee will not be applied toward services, as it is an additional charge for salon rental. On the day of the event, each guest will be charged the normal rates or any promotional rates offered. If any services are left unpaid after the party has vacated the premises, the card on file will be charged, along with a 20% gratuity charge.

For On Location Events this card will be charged 50% of the estimated charges upon receipt of this signed contract. It is understood that costs may increase or decrease based on changes that are requested. All refunds or additional charges will be charged to the card on file after the event.

Cancellation Policy

If the party desires to cancel a portion or ALL of their services, they must do so at least one week prior to the event. Services may also be added, pending availability. However, additional services cannot be guaranteed once the initial contract is signed. If the party cancels entirely within a one week of the event or does not show up at all, the entire cost of the party will be charged to the card we have on file.
